Sir:

In reply to the January 23, 2006 Office Action, reconsideration of the rejection is respectfully requested in light of the following remarks. Claims 1-30 are pending in this application.

The Office Action rejects claims 1-30 under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) over Honda (JP 2000-1555666). Applicants respectfully traverse this rejection.

Specifically, Applicants assert that Honda does not disclose storing print content data used in a case of printing on a first type of printing medium, generating print data to be printed on a second type of printing medium by using the stored print content data, wherein the second type of printing medium is one selected from the group and is different from the first type of printing medium, as recited in independent claims 1 and 16.
